We should know – we hear from them every day. That is why we are hosting an event to bridge the gap, and give both sides an engaging and informative way to get together.

Introducing the First Annual AOTMP® Industry Solutions Showcase

AOTMP®, The Association of Telecom, Mobility and IT Management Professionals, is proud to be bringing a new event to the industry that will showcase the latest and greatest technology solutions from a variety of products and services.

AOTMP® brings relevant and active industry professionals together daily, so it should come as no surprise that we present this new annual series bringing together users, providers, and other key industry collaborators around a common goal – simplifying the process of buying and selling technology solutions in our industry specifically.
